ASC of NSW Next Generation ribbons

Next Gen Delegates have recently been busy presenting ribbons at NSW Ag Shows to deserving youth that have made an impact at their local Shows. Here are three recipients and a little about their involvement.

HANNAH RUSSELL Tamworth Show

Congratulations to Hannah Russell on being awarded the ASC of NSW Next Generation ribbon at Tamworth Show, presented by Group 14 Delegate Tash Yeo.

Over the past two years, Hannah has done an outstanding job coordinating the Young Woman program and taking on the role of youngest ever Tamworth Show Secretary. She is making a lasting impact on the community and showcasing her dedication and leadership skills.

Her hard work and commitment have truly shone through. We can't wait to see what amazing things she does in the future in helping!

JOSHUA MACMILLAN Comboyne Show

Congratulations to Joshua Macmillan on receiving the Next Gen Ribbon at the Comboyne Show, presented by Group 2 Delegate Jessica Kernahan.

Joshua has been involved in the Comboyne Show. A highlight for him has been introducing Scottish Highland Cattle to the Plateau.

He and his wife are also involved with the local school and very generous with their time.

As a child of a dairy farming family, he is diversifying his agricultural endeavours through his engagement in the Comboyne Show. Josh is a very humble and deserving recipient of this ribbon.

KANDYCE ELLEM Glen Innes Show

Congratulations to Glen Innes ribbon recipient, Kandyce Ellem.

Kandy has stepped up tremendously. Despite taking on the role as the Show's Young Woman Coordinator at the last minute, she organised and ran an amazing judging weekend.

Kandy was excited to receive the Next Gen Ribbon which was presented to her by Group 13 Delegate Gypsy-Lee Marshall.

She is eager to get more individuals involved in the Glen Innes Show.
